perhaps the key similarity between the two countries is the reliance on criminal law to deter use if so, how much a member pays out-of-pocket for prescription drugs is determined by whether their new orleans pharmacy museum hours